CALLING ALL FANS OF G.K. CHESTERTON

Members of a local group are currently seeking others interested in joining them at their monthly gatherings to discuss the works of G.K. Chesterton and his contemporaries. Topics can be the Father Brown mysteries, maybe the Battle of Lepanto or eugenics. His contemporaries were G.B. Shaw, Charles Dickens, and Hilaire Belloc, among others. Chesterton's relevance to today's world is a surprising topic in itself. The group meets for a potluck supper usually the second Saturday of the month at 7 PM at the Holy Name of Jesus House of Studies, 51 Illinois St., Worcester. For more information, please contact Monica at monica.mckenna@yahoo.com.

Dear friends in Christ,

Why choose a Catholic School given all the choices that are available today? While we take pride in our quality academics, in developing physical and teamwork skills in sports, and in being involved in community service, one thing that stands out above all else: children can encounter Christ in all aspects of a Catholic School experience. The Catholic education each child receives is rooted in an understanding of the human person as made in the image and likeness of God who is the true source of human dignity.

The mission of Catholic Schools is an integral part of the mission of the Catholic Church. In the Sacrament of Matrimony, parents vow to raise their children in the Catholic faith. There is no better opportunity to do so than in a Catholic School where teachers, staff, and volunteers alike give witness to the faith every day, both in and out of the classroom.

I invite you to review this year's Catholic Schools' Appeal report available online at www.schools.worcesterdiocese.org and in The Catholic Free Press and recognize how Catholic Schools are performing a vital service to the entire Church and how we need the support of everyone to carry on our mission. In order to share the "Good News" story of Catholic Schools, we rely on those of you who have received a Catholic education firsthand or have witnessed the benefits of a Catholic education in the graduates you have come to know. We owe it to future generations to be able to encounter Christ in the classroom. Thank you for prayerfully considering how you can be part of this commitment.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Robert J. McManus
